E-COMMERCE MANAGER

WHAT YOU WILL BE DOING

As our E-commerce Manager, you will be responsible for supporting a range of e-commerce development projects.

 Your primary responsibility will be leading sales efforts with Amazon.com, among other e-commerce accounts, by managing customer relationships and account operations.

You will also:

- · Drive growth through innovative campaigns.
- Help to structure and design a winning e-commerce strategy.
- Lead all strategic and operational digital deliverables (including research, analytics, and strategies directed at the online shopper experience).
- Stay up-to-date on key digital consumer, shopper and retail trends, and on emerging media and technologies.

THE EXPERIENCE AND SKILLS YOU WILL NEED

- An impressive understanding of e-commerce coming from direct experience of creating and implementing digital retail solutions.
- A demonstrated ability to drive traffic and sales.
 Direct sales experience is a plus.
- Strong communication skills in English as it will be your primary working language.
- An analytics-focused profile.
- As a proactive and results-oriented thinker, you thrive in entrepreneurial environments where new ideas are valued.
- An understanding of Amazon e-commerce best practices would be a plus.
- The ability to work collaboratively in a team environment.
